Wilmington, Delaware, January 1, 1901

Dear Sir: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 29th inst. in relation to the matter of the proposed sale of the property of the Wilmington and Delaware Electric Railway Company. I am sorry to hear that the proposed sale of the property of the Company is not being consummated. I am, however, glad to hear that the Company is still in existence and that it is still engaged in the business of operating the electric railway. I am, of course, interested in the success of the Company and in the progress of its business. I am, therefore, glad to hear that the Company is still in existence and that it is still engaged in the business of operating the electric railway. I am, of course, interested in the success of the Company and in the progress of its business. I am, therefore, glad to hear that the Company is still in existence and that it is still engaged in the business of operating the electric railway. I am, of course, interested in the success of the Company and in the progress of its business. I am, therefore, glad to hear that the Company is still in existence and that it is still engaged in the business of operating the electric railway.

Very respectfully,
